sagitta 1971

Youth is not a time of
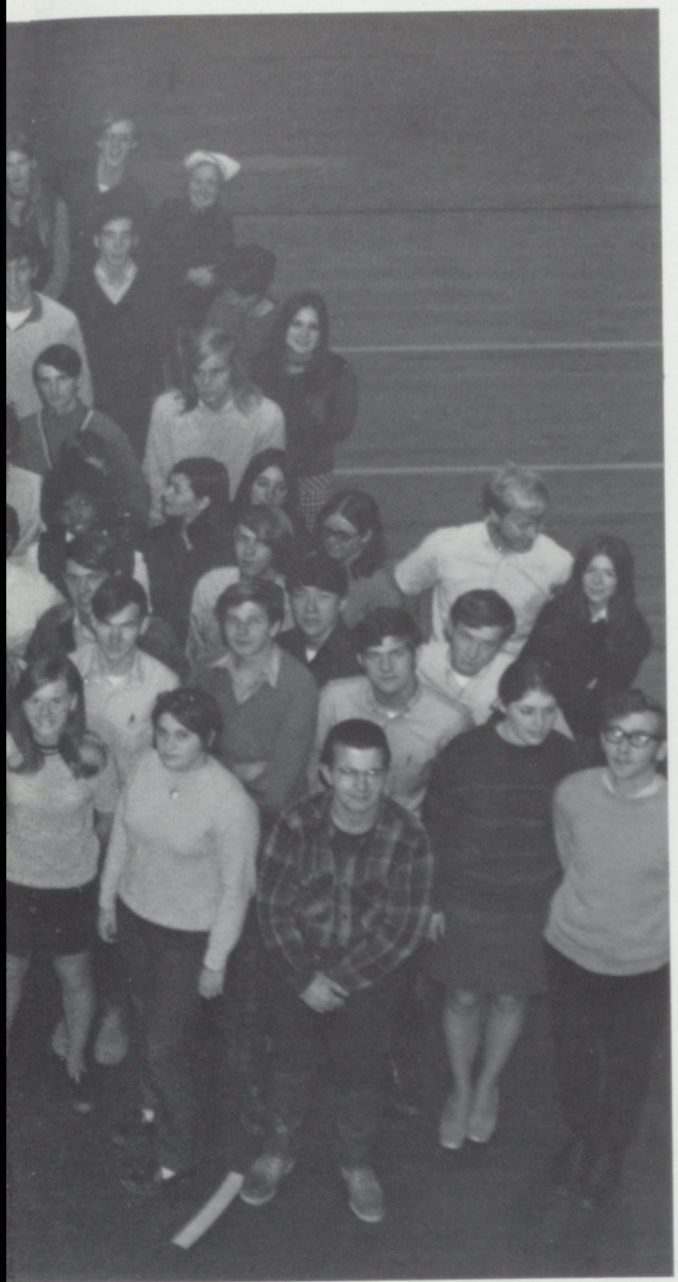
life,
but a state of
mind

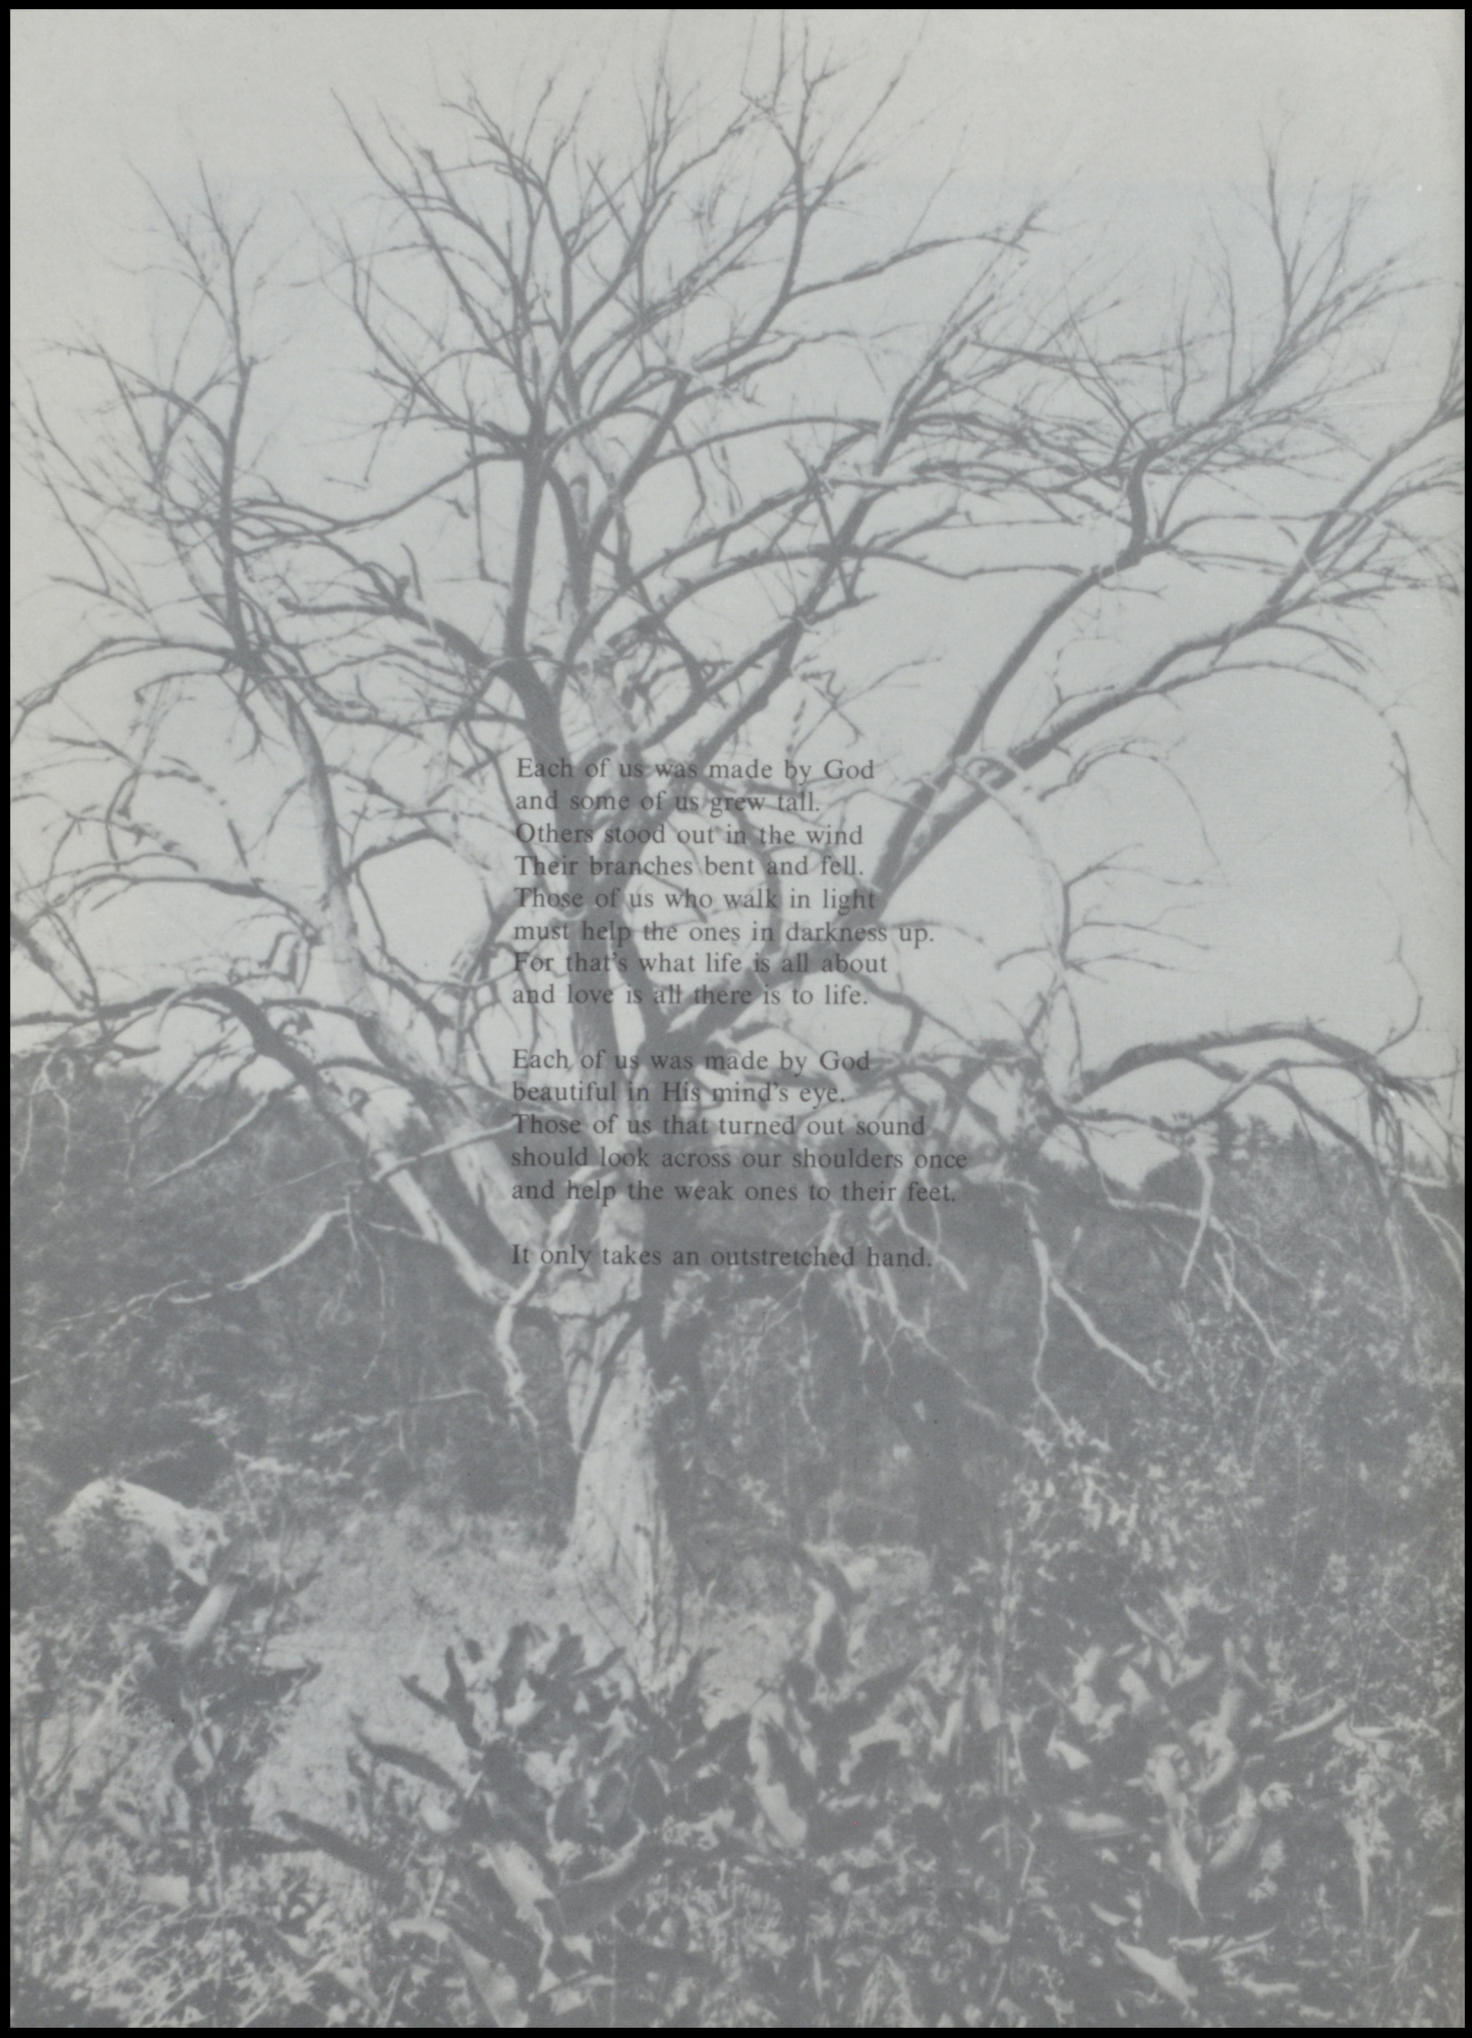
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SEV



SAGITTA

Suffield High School
Suffield, Connecticut

ENTY-ONE PRESENTS . . .



Each of us was made by God
and some of us grew tall.
Others stood out in the wind
Their branches bent and fell.
Those of us who walk in light
must help the ones in darkness up.
For that's what life is all about
and love is all there is to life.

Each of us was made by God
beautiful in His mind's eye.
Those of us that turned out sound
should look across our shoulders once
and help the weak ones to their feet.

It only takes an outstretched hand.

The thoughts of youth are long long thoughts . . .

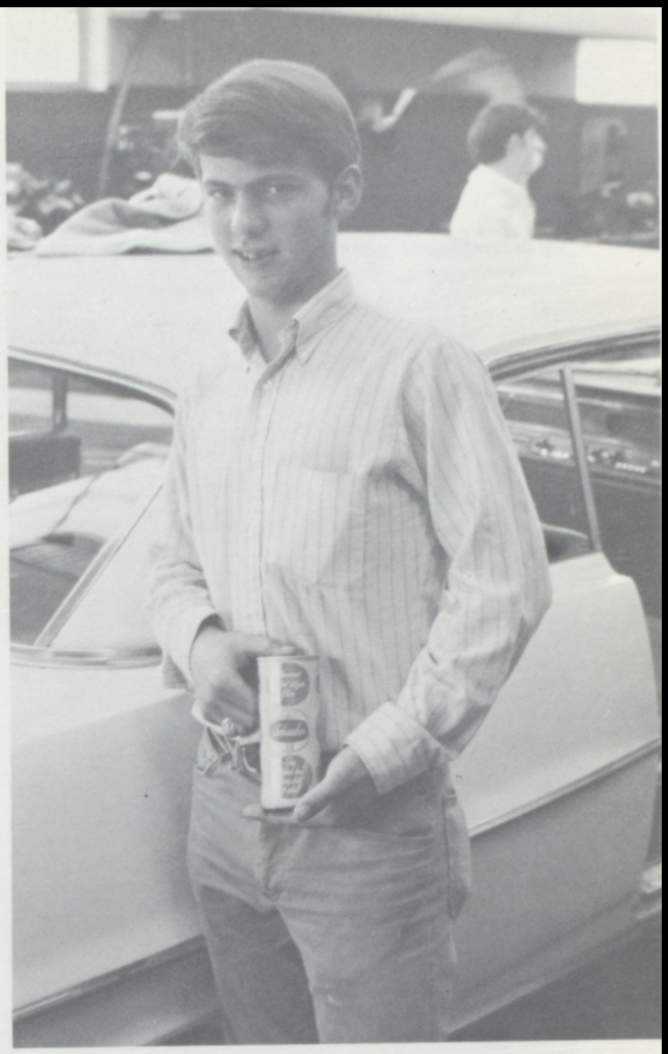
Pass no day idle . . .

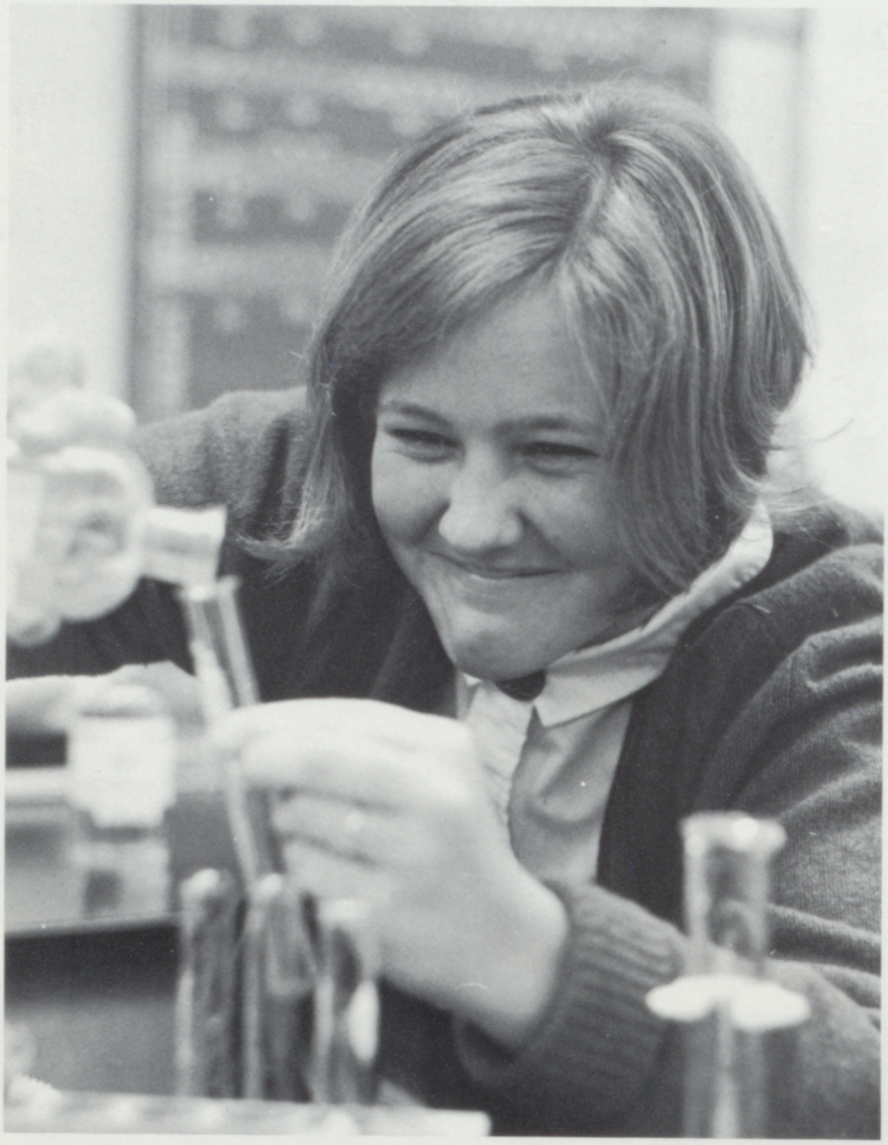
Youth does not return.

Let us then be up and doing.

Why should life all labor be?



I've taken my fun where I've found it . . .



Youth
is wholly experimental . . .

You are a child of the universe, no less than the trees and stars.

DEDICATION

LIGHTNING LARRY, the man who . . .

Came as a surprise at Christmas (Freshman Style) . . .

Floated us to a Pep Rally victory (Sophomore Style) . . .

Swung at our Prom, and carted mushrooms for a week (Junior Style) . . .

Never slumped (Senior Style) . . .

Taught us a few things:

Life Style.

We came with high goals . . . ambitious, energetic, hopeful . . .

"itty-bitty" freshmen in a big new school . . .
meeting new friends;
doing new things;
learning to live . . .

The Frosh Flash, our own newspaper, kept us posted on our successes and future plans. We had:
some of the best bake sales; each item pre-tasted and then priced!!
. . . a book sale with everything from Seuse to Sartre for all the zany people we were meeting.
. . . Kevin and his movies — "The Man from Button Willow" and "The History of Aviation"; a daring project, a wonderful success!! And all the candy we munched on while the kiddies watched the show didn't even hurt the treasury!

Pep Rally time came; unsure, we followed everyone's example. When the sophomores won it, we had a goal . . . a challenge to show our spirit . . . This ambition united us even more.

Winter faded into spring;
We blossomed in new friendships and ideas . . .

Our car wash . . . through soap suds and hose fights we followed another tradition . . .
Then June came,
gone were the senior class clowns in boy scout uniforms;
the Fox, the Squirrel;
gone were the future athletes from Freshmen Basketball;
gone were we . . . to become —

"silly-silly" sophomores with fantastic new ideas, and . . .
. . . a helium tank!! Mr. Green came through for us!

Remember how we won the pep rally that year?
With two six foot wooden wildcats;
With 300 helium balloons suspended over our heads,
and our new blue and white jackets on.
and we cheered and cheered
until we couldn't even whisper . . .
and remember the way we held our heads high
the next day, because we broke the junior's winning streak?

At every game that season that barrel of air was used to sell balloons . . .
That was spirit!!
Kevin kept at his movies,
Wes played Jolly Old St. Nick,
assisted by his sexy elves . . .
. . . we popped popcorn and baked Pillsbury cookies . . .

then came our rings —
didn't we put our hands on our books
to show 'em off.
and start talking with our hands, (like Italians) . . .
. . . maybe that's why we thought of Mama Fizino's for our spaghetti dinner . . . it's nice to know a good Italian chef, eh Steve?
. . . another year gone, another advisor gone . . .

almost $1500 in the treasury:
a candy sale on the way;
and, we, proud upperclassmen —
why shouldn't we be

"jolly-jolly" juniors?
Our junior year brought maturity.

. . . the candy sale — with lots of responsibilities
and problems to be solved;
we made it, though, through all the obstacles . . .
. . . the Mafia emerged . . . the class clowns — the "spirited"
ones . . .
Pep all the time . . .
Mafia '71 posted in hallways, on doors . . .

"Through the Looking Glass" was a success . . .
complete with the Mad Hatter and Alice and the purple mushroom;
the entrance with plants and flowers . . .
everyone was caught up in the fantasy;
and who could forget the day after?
The ripping down of the "set" as the sun rose . . .
the windy, cold day at the beach . . .

Another year had come and gone . . .

as "mighty-mighty" seniors we were now to set the examples . . .

Our magazine drive, though not the best, increased our treasury;

"You Can't Take It With You", the first senior class
play;
all the ad-libbing we did (I didn't do nothin')
and Tim's impressions;
the snakes;
Miss Hatheway's cat,
the first full rehearsal on opening night!!
Hopefully,
others will follow this tradition as SHS

. . . the Senior Snow Ball . . . and Longo's afterwards . . .

the yearbook;
anticipation of college decisions;
waiting for June;
impatience to be up and doing.

And now,
we go . . .
Let us remember
that however diversified
our paths,
we all came
from
the same road . . .

We leave with high goals . . . ambitious, energetic, hopeful . . .
